The Texas Narcotic Officers' Association – East Region along with the DEA Houston Field Office will host a 40-hour (5-day) training course entitled “INTERVIEW & INTERROGATION” provided by the Regional Counterdrug Training Academy in Houston, Texas. Registration is open through RCTA and TCOLE hours will be available.

Check in will begin at 0715 hours on both days and the course will start promptly at 0800 hours on Monday, September 11, 2017, at the DEA Houston Field Office – first floor training room.

Course Overview

This course is presented with ethics and the respect for human dignity as the guiding principle in the ethical, moral and legal application of techniques designed to maximize gathering data while insuring the constitutional and civil rights of all people.

This course is designed for police professionals choosing to enhance their ability to gain information in the interview and interrogation process to include the patrol officer with minimal experience to the most seasoned police investigator who will gain insight into information gathering.

The individual attending this course must be committed to examining themselves and others to find clues that may be utilized to realize the highest levels of human interaction in an arena of respect and dignity.
