

“Home Invasions” and “Human Trafficking”

May 12, 2016

Houston Distributing Company
7100 High Life Dr., Houston, TX 77066

The TNOA East Region, along with CLEAT, will sponsor a one-day (4 hour) Home Invasion by Police Impersonators and (4 hour) Human Trafficking course in Houston, Texas. The course will be LIMITED TO 75 STUDENTS, so reserve your spot as soon as possible.

Registration will begin at 0730 hours and class will start promptly at 0800 hours on Thursday, May 12, 2016, at the Houston Distributing Company, 7100 High Life Dr., Houston, TX 77066. Students should show up in plain clothes. Shorts will not be allowed.

The Home Invasion / Police Impersonators course will inform law enforcement investigators on the types of criminals and groups that commit these violent crimes and how Patrol Officers and Investigators should respond. These violent acts occur against occupied residences or businesses with the primary intent to rob and do harm to the occupants. With different goals in mind, these criminals force their way into these places and use deadly force to gain compliance. This course will cover the elements and MO's of these criminals and will aid law enforcement to investigate and prosecute these suspects.

The Human Trafficking course will inform law enforcement on how to identify, investigate, and file charges against persons involved in human trafficking. Known as modern day slavery, these victims and criminals are being found to be more prevalent in law enforcement.

Required equipment includes wearing plain clothes (no shorts), notepad, and other note taking materials.

The course is $30.00 for TNOA members and $40.00 for non-members. Register through the TNOA website, TNOA.org under the regional training tab or by sending an email to . Any questions can be forwarded to Juan Martinez at tnoaeasttraining@gmail.com or calling 713-737-5135. All fees are due by the date of the class 0800. There will be no refunds for cancellations after that date.
